

Dr. Anisul Haque

E-mail: tuhinhaque93@gmail.com
anisulhaqueju@gmail.com

Contract Number: 9735284570

- Dr. Anisul Haque is a visiting faculty at the Department of History, Jadavpur University, Kolkata, India. He also engaged Guest-Lecturer in the Department of History of Harichand Guruchand University, Thakurnagar, Gaighata, North 24 Parganas, West Bengal. He achieved his M.Phil. (2018) and Ph.D. degree (2023) from the Jadavpur University, Department of History, Kolkata, India. Dr. Haque is the author of Monograph (01), edited volumes (01) and over 14 research papers in leading international/national journals and proceedings. His areas of interest include the Social and Cultural History of Pre-colonial, Colonial and Post-colonial India. Additionally, he is trying to conduct research in emerging fields such as Diaspora Studies and Bengal Muslim public sphere.

Subjects Taught

- Modern Indian History (P.G course)
- State, Border and Citizenship in Post-Colonial South Asia (P.G course)
- Politics, Society, Religion and Culture in Colonial and Post-Colonial Bengal (P.G course)
- Women in Indian Society: From Past to Present (P.G course)
- Indian Diaspora (P.G course)
- West Bengal 1947 Onwards (P.G course)

Research Interests

- Social and Cultural History of Pre-colonial, Colonial and Post-colonial India
- History of Diaspora and Identity crisis
- Bengal Muslim public sphere
- History of Afghanistan
- Socio-Cultural History of Kolkata

